

Job offer

Transition Student Support Worker (Maternity Replacement)

MICMACS OF GESGAPEGIAG is a
First Nations government with about one hundred and ten (110)
permanent employees whose mission is to deliver a variety of services
from education to health care to policing to the members of the community.

Job location: Gesgapegiag, possibility of travelling.

Date of assumption of duties: January 2022.

Remuneration: $36,420 - $43,525 depending on experience, plus competitive employee benefits.

Under the direct supervision of the Transition Coordinator, the Transition Student Support Worker will perform a variety of duties in providing appropriate services to high school students specifically from Gesgapegiag. The Transition Student Support Worker is the link between Education Services, school, families, and resource providers, ensuring that the students have access to available services. The worker will be responsible to coordinate, plan, and implement the delivery of the student supports, and administrative tasks.

The challenges of the job are:

- Attending transition meetings with school staff, parents, students and others.
- Facilitating the transition process by supporting students at the academic, social, family and personal level according to their needs.
- Working with students to develop skills such as organizational and time management abilities, and effective study habits.
- Maintain trust and confidentiality with students.
- Ensure collected data is kept confidential and safeguard student records.
- Submit reports to the supervisor.
- Raise awareness among teaching and non-teaching staff as well as stake holders in provincial schools attended by First Nation students to their needs, realities and issues.
- Identify, recruit and provide supports to students, in the classroom and during office hours.
- Assist students with tutorial supports, placement of students in work terms.

Qualifications required:

- Bachelor's degree or College studies in Special Education or Social Work.
- Good communication skills.
- Good computer and basic computer programs knowledge.
- Excellent communication skills in English.
- Mi'gmaq and French language an asset.
- Must have a valid Medicare card.
- Must have a valid driver's license.
- Clean criminal record.

Profile of the ideal candidate:

- Autonomous, possessing decision-making skills, excellent judgment.
- Sensitive to the social and cultural dynamics of First Nations communities, experience working in a First Nation context would be preferable.
- Skillful in planning and organization, experienced in teamwork.
- Skillful in conflict management.

Hiring priority: Given to Gesgapegiag Mi'gmaq followed by other Mi'gmaq, other First Nation persons and members of the general public.

All applications will be treated in a confidential manner.

Send your cover letter and resume before Friday, January 7th, 12:00 PM (noon) to:
Susan Willett, Human Resources Generalist
E-mail: susan.willett@gesgapegiag.ca